NATIONAL SCHOOL LIBRARY STANDARDS

Shared Foundations: Explore

THINK

Learners extend learning as they pursue topics of personal interest by reading, writing, and tinkering.

GROW

Learners identify their own potential by accepting feedback and self-assessing.

EXPLORE

CREATE

Learners construct new knowledge and solutions that are personally relevant using inquiry and design processes.

SHARE

Learners work in local and global communities to identify, investigate, and solve authentic problems.

Learners have a growth mindset and develop the habit of lifelong learning.

LIBRARIANS LEAD

- Create physical and virtual spaces that invite conversation and wondering.
- Model and foster curiosity and persistence.
- Provide time for students to wonder as they explore content and resources.
- Ensure learner voice and choice, reflection, and authentic learning opportunities.

TRANSFORMING LEARNING

The American Association of School Librarians (AASL) empowers leaders to transform teaching and learning. The Shared Foundations infographic set summarizes Competencies from the AASL Standards Framework for Learners and suggests some actions school librarians can take to get started with the standards.
