NATIONAL SCHOOL LIBRARY STANDARDS

Shared Foundations: Include

THINK

Learners appreciate the value of and critically analyze the merits of different perspectives.

GROW

Learners seek opportunities to learn about others' differing experiences and opinions.

START WITH: EQUITY

INCLUDE

CREATE

Learners deepen their understandings as they identify with the stories, thinking, and experiences of others.

SHARE

Learners respectfully communicate thoughts and ideas while listening to others who have contrasting points of view.

Learners demonstrate empathy and equity as they embrace diversity and make informed decisions.

LIBRARIANS LEAD

- Showcase learner success and celebrate differences and similarities through learner-led projects, displays, and initiatives.
- Build a collection that reflects the diverse global community.
- Create flexible learning spaces to meet all students' needs.
- Use principles of Universal Design to meet the needs of all individuals.

TRANSFORMING LEARNING

The American Association of School Librarians (AASL) empowers leaders to transform teaching and learning. The Shared Foundations infographic set summarizes Competencies from the AASL Standards Framework for Learners and suggests some actions school librarians can take to get started with the standards.
